Preparation Steps for Puri Kalia

The preparation involves two main parts: making the puris and cooking the kalia. Here is a step-by-step guide:

Making the Puri

Combine the whole wheat flour and salt in a mixing bowl. Add water gradually and knead to form a soft, smooth dough. Cover the dough with a damp cloth and let it rest for 15-20 minutes. Divide the dough into small portions and roll each into a thin circle using a rolling pin. Heat oil in a deep frying pan over medium heat. Fry the puris one at a time until they turn golden brown and crispy. Remove and drain excess oil on paper towels.

Cooking the Kalia

Heat oil in a large pan and add mustard seeds and bay leaves. Once the seeds crackle, add chopped onions and sauté until translucent. Add ginger-garlic paste and sauté for a minute until fragrant. Add chopped tomatoes and cook until the oil separates from the masala. Stir in turmeric, red chili, coriander powder, and salt; cook for a few minutes. Add cubed potatoes and chickpeas (if using), mix well. Add water to cover the ingredients and bring to a boil. Reduce heat, cover, and simmer until the potatoes are cooked and the curry thickens. Finish with garam masala and chopped cilantro for flavor and garnish.

Serving Suggestions and Presentation

Serve the hot puris alongside a generous bowl of spicy kalia. Garnish with freshly chopped cilantro and sliced green chilies for extra flavor. Accompany with pickles, yogurt, or salad for a complete meal. Traditionally, Puri Kalia is served during breakfast or lunch, often with a side of sweets or chutneys.
